COACHING STAFF

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

HEAD COACH HANNAH IVERSON

Hannah Iverson officially took over in April of 2018.

"I look forward to having a part in developing these young ladies in all areas of their lives. We will have a high level of expectations on the basketball court, but developing young women that are ready to take on the world will be our main goal."

Iverson was the director of player development for women's basketball at NCAA Division I UW-Green Bay, a position she began in October, 2016. Iverson held a similar position - director of basketball operations - at the University of Illinois from 2014-16. Iverson spent two years at NAIA member Ashford University in Clinton, Iowa, as an assistant women's basketball coach for the 2012-14 school years.

A native of Eau Claire, Iverson played her high school basketball at Eau Claire North where she helped the Huskies to three Big Rivers Conference titles and was a two-time conference player of the year.

GO BLUE DEVILS!

ASSISTANT COACH ALEXIS FOLEY

Alexis Foley begins her second year as a Blue Devil assistant coach.

An All-NSIC and All-Region guard at NCAA Division II Winona State, Foley coached a season at her alma mater after leading the Warriors to a 30-4 overall record, the best record in school history, and to their first NSIC championship title. Foley played two seasons at Division I University of Illinois and was an All-American HM before transferring to Winona State.

ASSISTANT COACH KYLEIGH HEBERT

Kyleigh Hebert begins her third year as an assistant women's basketball coach with the 2018-19 season.

Hebert was a four-year player for the Blue Devils, earning All-WIAC first team honors her senior year when she averaged 11.2 points per game. A three-time team captain, finished her Blue Devil career with 821 points and 235 assists.
